The left eye is composed of a cornea, a lens and a retina. The cornea is the front part of the eye that helps to focus light. The lens is a small, clear, oval-shaped structure that can change its shape to focus light on the retina. The retina is the back part of the eye that contains light-sensitive cells called rods and cones. These cells convert light into electrical signals that are sent to the brain via the optic nerve.

Boracay business owners up in arms over Lim remarks

By Phyllis E. Sison / P. Sison

DISSENTING OPINIONS — On the Boracay Island Council, President Francisco Lim's remarks regarding the island's future have caused a stir among business owners. The council, which is the governing body of the island, has been criticized for its actions and decisions. Business owners are up in arms over Lim's remarks, feeling that they are being treated unfairly. They are demanding that the council be held accountable for its actions and that the island's future be decided by the people.

BP prepares to test new cap on oil leak in Gulf

BP has prepared a new, larger containment cap for the oil leak in the Gulf of Mexico, and the company is preparing to test it on the damaged well. The new cap, which is 80 feet in diameter, is designed to fit over the damaged wellhead and prevent further oil from leaking into the Gulf. BP officials say the new cap is a significant improvement over the one that was used in the initial attempt to seal the well. The company is currently working on the logistics of moving the new cap to the wellhead and installing it. The test is expected to take place in the next few days. If the test is successful, it could lead to a permanent seal of the well. However, if the test fails, BP may be forced to consider other options, such as drilling a new well or abandoning the damaged one. The leak has caused significant environmental damage and has led to the closure of several beaches. BP has been criticized for its handling of the crisis and for the delay in installing a new cap. The company has said it is committed to doing everything it can to stop the leak and to cleaning up the spill.

Landslides in China 17 dead 44 missing

At least 17 people were killed and 44 missing in a series of landslides in China. The landslides occurred in the mountainous region of Yunnan province, where heavy rain had been falling for several days. The landslides hit several villages, destroying homes and infrastructure. Rescue workers are currently searching for the missing people. The Chinese government has ordered a full investigation into the cause of the landslides. The region is known for its frequent landslides, which are often triggered by heavy rain. The government has warned residents to be cautious and to evacuate if necessary.

Richest operation unleashed vs mafia

A major operation to combat the mafia has been launched in Italy. The operation, which is the largest in the country's history, involves the coordination of police, prosecutors, and judges. The goal is to dismantle the mafia's network and bring its leaders to justice. The mafia has been a major problem in Italy for decades, and the government has made it a top priority to combat it. The operation is expected to last several months. It involves the investigation of numerous cases and the arrest of many suspects. The government has promised to continue its efforts to combat the mafia until it is completely eradicated.

Unexploded bomb vest found in Uganda; 4 suspects nabbed

KAMPALA, Uganda (AP) — A vest containing a large unexploded bomb was found in a rural area of Uganda on Thursday, and four suspects were arrested in connection with the discovery, officials said.

The vest, which was found in a field, contained a large amount of explosive material and a detonator. It was found by a local farmer who reported the discovery to the police.

The police arrested four men in the area where the vest was found. They are being held in custody and are being questioned about the vest.

The police said they believe the vest was part of a plot to attack a government building in Kampala. They said they are looking for more people who were involved in the plot.

DOTC seeks P1B in unpaid fees from MRT consortium

Sobrepasa group claims it owes gov't nothing

By Joseph L. Palatino Special to Philippine Daily Inquirer

MANILA, Philippines — The Department of Transportation (DOTC) is seeking P1 billion in unpaid fees from the MRT consortium, a move that has sparked a legal battle with the Sobrepasa group, which claims it owes the government nothing.

The DOTC, which is the parent company of the MRT system, has filed a lawsuit with the Manila Regional Trial Court to recover the unpaid fees. The Sobrepasa group, which is the consortium's main contractor, has denied the claim and has filed a counter-suit with the same court.

The DOTC claims that the Sobrepasa group has failed to pay the fees for the use of the MRT system's infrastructure. The Sobrepasa group, on the other hand, claims that it has already paid the fees and that the DOTC is trying to extort money from it.

The case has become a major legal issue in the Philippines, as it involves the government's right to collect fees for the use of its infrastructure. The DOTC is seeking a judgment from the court that would allow it to collect the unpaid fees from the Sobrepasa group.

The Sobrepasa group has argued that it has already paid the fees and that the DOTC is trying to extort money from it. It has also argued that the DOTC is not entitled to the fees because it is not the owner of the MRT system's infrastructure.

The case is expected to be heard by the court in the near future. The outcome of the case will have a significant impact on the MRT system and on the relationship between the DOTC and the Sobrepasa group.

Tips on driving in the flood

By [Name] Photo by [Name]

When driving in flood conditions, it's important to know what to do. Here are some tips to help you stay safe:

1. Don't drive through flood water. If you're stuck in a flooded area, it's best to wait for help rather than trying to drive through the water. Flood water can be very deep and fast-moving, and it can be difficult to see what's underneath.

2. Turn on your headlights. This will help you see the road ahead and make it easier for other drivers to see you.
3. Drive slowly. Driving too fast in flood water can cause you to lose control of the car. It's better to drive slowly and carefully.
4. Stay in your lane. If you're in a multi-lane road, stay in your lane and avoid changing lanes. This will help you avoid collisions with other vehicles.
5. Don't panic. If you're stuck in a flooded area, don't panic. Stay calm and try to stay in your car until help arrives.
6. Call for help. If you're stuck in a flooded area, call for help. You can call the police or a tow truck.
7. Don't drink and drive. Drinking alcohol before driving can impair your judgment and reaction time, making it more difficult to drive safely in flood conditions.

Navigational help

If you're having trouble finding your way, there are several ways to get help. Here are some options:

- Use a GPS device. A GPS device can help you find your way by providing you with directions and showing you the current location of your car.
- Use a map app. There are many map apps available on smartphones and tablets that can help you find your way.
- Ask for help. If you're having trouble finding your way, ask for help from a friend or a stranger. They may be able to help you find your way.

Ferrari rues Formula One 'curse'

By the time the 1996 season begins, Ferrari will have lost 10 of its last 11 races. The team's fortunes have been in a state of flux since the 1994 season, when Michael Schumacher won the world championship. The team's performance has been hampered by a combination of factors, including a lack of funding and a lack of success in the race. How the Younghusband brothers found their footing in football—with Mom and Dad's help

The Younghusband brothers, who are now in their late 20s, are the sons of Jennifer Younghusband, a former professional football player. They are the only two of their family to play the sport.
